Puyallup, WA. June 8, 2021:

PIERCE COUNTY, WA – On June 7, 2021 at 9:47 p.m., the Pierce County Force Investigation Team was called out to the 500 block of Valley Avenue NE for an officer involved shooting.

At 8:50 p.m., Tactical Response Team members from Fife, Bonney Lake and Puyallup police departments had responded to the residence at the request of Puyallup police officers who were doing a welfare check of a male who had not been heard from by family members since the day before. Negotiators were speaking with the wife of the male when she came outside with a weapon and shots were fired.

The 34-year-old female was immediately rendered medical aid and transported to a local hospital for non-life threatening injuries.

No officers were injured.

In a subsequent search of the residence, officers located the 31-year-old male resident deceased in a bedroom.

The investigation into the use of deadly force and the homicide is ongoing and will be conducted by the Pierce County Force Investigation Team.
