Spanaway, WA. May 12, 2021:

On May 12th, 2021, South Sound 911 received a call of an unwanted person in a vehicle in the area of 173rd and A Street. As the responding deputy arrived and began approaching the vehicle, shots were fired. Pierce County Sheriff SWAT deputies were called to the scene to assist with making contact with the subject. After making multiple announcements, SWAT Deputies approached the vehicle and discovered the subject inside was deceased. No deputies were hurt in the incident, and the Pierce County Force Investigation Team was called to handle the investigation.

The investigation is ongoing and will be conducted by the Pierce County Force Investigation Team.
