

Personal Profile for Matthew M. Santelli, M.A.

Matt has worked for Pierce County Human Services for the last 19 years. Matt currently works as an Education and Outreach Specialist for the Pierce County Aging and Disability Resource Center. Matt is a Certified Senior/Disabled Information and Referral Specialist. Matt is also a Washington State Licensed Mental Health Counselor. Matt enjoys his work of educating the residents of Pierce County on the programs and services available to them and their families through the Pierce County ADRC. He has dedicated himself to understanding the many complex rules of Medicare and Medicaid, to guide residents in need through these programs, and to maximize the benefits available to them. His goal in his work is to maintain the health, safety, and financial stability of his clients to extend their ability to live independently at home. His presentation during the Conference will provide useful information on Medicaid funding for long-term care in the home and in a care facility setting.
