General Advocacy Subcommittee Business

- Members shared why they chose to participate on the advocacy subcommittee
- What should charter contain for this Subcommittee?
 - o Advocate to local, state, and federal elected officials. Expand beyond just Pierce County to distill ideas that can be brought forth to Pierce County.
 - Include Superintendents, Mayors, etc.
 - o Formulating ideas with data and community input.
 - o Take-in information, listen, and then tell the story.
 - o Discussion occurred where can this advocacy subcommittee learn about funding beyond the PSTAA funds. Tanya is meeting with CM Hitchin and will ask her of ideas.
 - o This group should understand what other people are advocating for in the community related to B-25.
- This subcommittee should convene/partner with Graduate Tacoma with another like committee in Tacoma. This would occur about two-three times a year.
 - Tanya will work on this and will look at dates for an event/meeting.
- Introductory meeting with Councilmembers
 - o What do you want B-25 to achieve? What are you hearing from your constituents?
