March 8, 2022:

The officer in this incident has been identified as Angel Castaneda, a 26-year-old male who has been with the Tacoma Police Department for 5 years and 3 months.

Detectives were able to determine the following based on statements by witnesses, officers and from surveillance video obtained during the investigation.

Detectives were investigating Jeremiah Tusi for a homicide which involved a firearm. The firearm from the homicide was never recovered. On February 15th when officers attempted to arrest Tusi, there was a foot pursuit in the parking lot of the hotel at 8700 S. Hosmer Street.

Tusi was able to evade officers on foot and got into a car. As he was entering the vehicle, one of the witnessing officers saw Tusi was in possession of a firearm and announced this over the radio to the other officers, including Officer Castaneda.

Tusi then led officers on a pursuit causing damage to other vehicles and running into occupied vehicles. When Tusi crashed his vehicle at 8800 South Tacoma Way, he ran up to an occupied gray van and reaches to open the door in an attempt to carjack the woman. At that time Officer Castaneda is challenging Tusi at gunpoint. Tusi turns his body towards Officer Castaneda and reaches towards his front sweatshirt pocket. During that time Tusi is shot by Officer Castaneda.

For Immediate Release 3:00 p.m., March 15, 2022

Tusi falls to the ground and is detained in handcuffs. Officers recovered a firearm from Tusi's front sweatshirt pocket where his hand was reaching as Officer Castaneda challenged him. A second firearm was also found in the vehicle Tusi had been driving.

The investigation is ongoing.
