Classification descriptions are intended to present a descriptive list of the range of duties performed by employees in this class and are not intended to reflect all duties performed within the job.

GENERAL FUNCTION

This is supervisory and technical accounting work for Pierce County. Employees in this classification supervise and direct the activities of a fiscal record keeping unit comprised typically of a staff of five to ten employees. Work requires a thorough understanding of fiscal procedures within the department. Work requires interaction with customers to solve problems and answer inquiries. While these positions involve responsibility for evaluation and revision of procedures as they apply to the department, they differ from the professional accounting series in that evaluation of accounting summary data and complex, comprehensive accounting procedures are not normal job assignments. Work also involves providing technical assistance and training to staff members. Employees function with considerable independence and may exercise independent judgment, within the framework of existing policies and procedures. Work is performed under administrative supervision and is reviewed by an administrative superior through periodic conferences for the effective management of the work units.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Coordinates and supervises program budget and budget changes, analyzes budget variance. Controls expenditures in accordance with budget allocations, reviews proposed expenditures to determine compliance with allotted budget, and recommends approval or disapproval of expenditures.

Supervises and coordinates activities of accounting support workers. Determines work procedures, prepares work schedules and determines methods for expediting workflow. Issues instructions and verifies work for accuracy, neatness, and conformance to established procedures and policies.

Makes day-to-day decisions regarding the accounting treatment of financial transactions; responds to problems encountered by subordinate staff.

Provides information necessary for completion of fund request forms and grant applications.

Prepares forms necessary for funding consideration.

Provides information and advice concerning specialized or technical services rendered and related office functions, including response to difficult problems and questions raised by the public served or by subordinates.

Recommends subordinates for reassignment, promotion, or termination; performs evaluations of work assignments on the job.
