Hazard Funding Websites

Washington Fund Directory

The State of Washington has many resources available to help finance diverse projects, from environmental cleanup, to building better schools, to improving pedestrian access in cities and towns. The Washington Fund Directory compiles these state programs into a single depository that is user-friendly and easy to navigate. The Washington Fund Directory is brought to you by the Office of the State Treasurer. <https://www.wafunddirectory.wa.gov/>

Grants.gov

Under the President's Management Agenda, the office was chartered to deliver a system that provides a centralized location for grant seekers to find and apply for federal funding opportunities. Today, the Grants.gov system houses information on over 1,000 grant programs and vets grant applications for federal grant-making agencies. <https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/home.html>

National Science Foundation

The National Science Foundation (NSF) is an independent federal agency created by Congress in 1950 "to promote the progress of science; to advance the national health, prosperity, and welfare; to secure the national defense..." NSF is vital because we support basic research and people to create knowledge that transforms the future. This type of support:

- Is a primary driver of the U.S. economy.
- Enhances the nation's security.
- Advances knowledge to sustain global leadership.

With an annual budget of $8.1 billion (FY 2019), we are the funding source for approximately 24 percent of all federally supported basic research conducted by America's colleges and universities. In many fields such as mathematics, computer science and the social sciences, NSF is the major source of federal backing. <https://www.nsf.gov/funding/azindex.jsp>

FEMA Grants

This section of the site contains information on preparedness grants funding provided by FEMA to state, local, tribal, and territorial governments in the form of non-disaster grants. Preparedness and other grant programs support our citizens and first responders to ensure that we work together as a nation to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards. These grants support our grantees develop and sustain capabilities at the state and local, tribal, and territorial levels and in our nation's highest-risk transit systems, ports, and along our borders to prevent, protect against, respond to, recover from and mitigate terrorism and other high-consequence disasters and emergencies. <https://www.fema.gov/grants>

Natural Hazard Mitigation Association

The mission of NHMA is to be a catalyst for societal change by elevating the value of hazard mitigation so that natural hazards do not cause disasters, and suffering and misery to people, property, the environment, and taxpayers. We promote education, policies, and activities that mitigate current and future losses, costs, and human suffering unnecessarily caused by unwise development practices without regard to natural hazards. <http://nhma.info/>
